

2003 Critics Choice

"Mussels were among the best I've tasted, fresh and moist in a toasty coconut curry broth that I could drink and call my meal complete and exciting," wrote Chris Sherman, Times Staff Writer of the St. Petersburg Times.

Catch Twenty-Three, located in West Park Village in the community of Westchase, offers delicious creations served up in a casual, upscale setting. Sounds of smooth island music, warm lighting, and mouth watering aromas emanate from the pecan wood grill at Catch Twenty-Three. The catches of each day call for "Certified Fresh Seafood" with a twist of Caribbean/Latin fusion cuisine such as a creamy garlic butter cilantro sauce or a spicy mango salsa.

Catch Twenty-Three took the honors of "2003 Best Seafood in Tampa Bay" according to the survey taken by the World of Westchase Magazine. WOW magazine wrote, "Catch Twenty-Three soundly beat the field in this popular category." Catch Twenty-Three was also voted "2003 Critics Choice" by The Tampa Tribune.

Happy Hour is Monday through Friday 4-7 pm in the bar area, offering two-for-one house brand mixed drinks and discounts on domestic beer and house wine. A mouth watering $9.95 steak dinner is another bar only feature on Thursday nights. The proprietor, Rob Wickner is a former employee of one of the top ranked steak houses in America.

Friday evenings at Catch Twenty-Three celebrate each new weekend with live Caribbean music from the outside patio where guests can choose to drink and dine. Valet Parking is complimentary on Friday and Saturday evenings
